Spring fashions in Fabrics and Ready-to-wear things are daily arriving at the Miller & Rhoads Store-Even now, as you read, the southbound express is hurrying new things here.

Heralds of the approaching Spring!

Out of doors, soon we shall note the swelling of buds, the cracking ground, the tiny blades of rich, green grass and the mating of birds, evidencing with these signs of newness of life everywhere that all nature has grown tired of its wintry garb.

It is so in a big store.

Even before midwinter is past is the time we begin actively to think and plan for Spring and the arrangement and display of merchandise that must be contracted for months in advance. Many new things are in and others are on their way.

And who doesn't love the change, the newness, the brightness Spring always brings us; its bright and cheerful days, its glad sunshine and its balmy air?

TO OUR FRIENDS AND PATRONS we are always glad to announce new things, coming and here, and already throughout the store there is evidence a-plenty that Spring is not far distant. Indeed, it would seem that we had actually slipped the calendar ahead thirty or sixty days.

Real green grass and flowers and foliage, of course, you will not see, but you will see NEW TAILORED SUITS that show the hand of master designers and tailors; NEW DRESSES that will start reveries of warm days, days of bright sunshine, that will make one dream of seashore, mountains or an immediate trip to some far Southern clime; SHIRTWAITS that cannot help but call to mind pictures of how cool and comfortable and fresh they will be on warm days; NEW SILKS AND DRESS GOODS and the legions of laces and other Trimmings that will charm the feminine mind and lend new ideas to that ever interesting topic, "Fashionable Dress," NEW WASH FABRICS that are like blossoms in their suggestiveness of out of doors and sunshine and gladness; NEW WHITE GOODS AND NEW EMBROIDERIES, like drifts of the whitest snow for fashioning smart outergarments for "the girl in white," and for undergarments; NEW NECKWEAR, NEW GLOVES and new things in ever so many other places about the store.

And we do believe that the newest things are always a little bit the best, because afterconceptions, later designs and later models are often but a confirmation of the correctness of the earlier ones, and then everthing seems not to have quite the attraction of the first-the first bursting buds to refresh winter-tired MILLER & RHOADS.
